

Having an Event?

Need an engaging and important activity or presentation? If yes, then Ladies' Estate Planning Tea™ is your answer.

We will join you and gather to chat as mothers, wives, sisters, daughters, aunts, godmothers, volunteers, sorority sisters, social club members, and ladies with an openness to creating a legacy. We lighten up the topic by having vibrant conversations and activities that inspire, inform, and empower.

| Audience           | Event Description ( in-person or virtual )  |
|--------------------|--|
| Women – General    | Join us for a serene tea experience created just for women. Sip your favorite brew as we explore how estate planning empowers you and those you love. This uplifting gathering blends warmth, wisdom, and practical steps toward a future with purpose.  |
| Widows Focused     | Join us for a comforting and empowering tea gathering designed especially for widows. Together, we'll explore how estate planning can honor your journey and secure your legacy. This heartfelt event offers connection, clarity, and a gentle path forward—because your story matters, and your future deserves care. |
| Women - Fuzzy/Warm | Pour a cup, take a breath, and settle into a cozy tea created just for women like you. This is your time—space to dream, connect, and reflect on life's next beautiful chapter. With a gentle conversation about estate planning, we'll stir in a little inspiration and a lot of love.                                |
| Women - Cozy       | Enjoy your favorite tea and join us for a gathering. We'll blend cozy conversation with sips of estate planning — nothing heavy, just real talk about what matters most. Expect an enlightening discussion, and a space to simply be.  |

While Ladies' Estate Planning Tea™ does not prepare estate plans, we can help by shedding light on the importance of estate planning for you, your family, favorite causes, schools, and faith-based organizations.
